THE MIRROR SUBSCRIPTION

From Father Tom's Desk

Hayden Vaughn

Our Director of Sacred Music has submitted his letter of resignation and will conclude his work among us this weekend. We wish him the best in his career, the completion of his studies and the development of his gifts.

Thank you to Men's Conference

God bless all who organized, prepared, and prayed to make the Catholic Men's Conference a day of renewal! God bless all who attended the day!

Thank you to Anonymous Donors

Our gratitude to the generosity of anonymous donors who made it possible to have cushions in the pews and new pads on the kneelers in the church. Say a prayer of thanksgiving on their behalf!

We Have a Choice to Transform

There is a story about two young brothers who were caught stealing sheep. The punishment back then was to brand the thief's forehead with the letters ST which stood for sheep thief. As a result of this, one brother left the village and spent his remaining years wandering from place to place indelibly marked by disgrace. The other remained in the village, made restitution for the stolen sheep, and became a caring friend and neighbor to the townspeople. He lived out his life in the village--an old man loved by all.

One day a stranger came to town and inquired about the ST on the old man's forehead. "I'm not sure what it means," another told him. "It happened so long ago, but I think the letters must stand for saint."

We have a choice. We can lay down the cross we have been given to bear and passively live life with no challenge to change or we can take it up and be transformed, living for something greater than ourselves: The Kingdom of God. The choice is yours. But I adjure you: Take it up!

The Starving Family

Mother Teresa heard of a family whose nine members were starving to death. She hurriedly obtained some rice and went to the family, giving them enough rice to prepare a meal. But the woman divided the rice into two piles, placed one in a bag and started to leave. Mother Teresa asked where she was going. The woman said she was going to visit another family who she knew was starving also.
